

An Unlucky Day

Marco had a very unlucky day.
After his violin lesson, he went to the park with his violin and his dog, Peter. Peter was small and strong. Marco loved Peter.

Marco played with his dog so he felt happy. He put his violin on the bench.
Later, his mum called him to go home. Then, he went home but he forgot to bring his violin. Suddenly, he remembered his violin was on the bench so he felt worried.

In the afternoon, he went to the park again to look for his violin. He found his violin but it was broken. He was unhappy.

by 4A Lily Yu 25