

An Unlucky Day

One day after school, Marco played with a dog in the park. He put his violin on a bench. He felt happy.

It was six o'clock. Marco went home for dinner. He forgot his violin. At home, he remembered that he had left his violin in the park. He went back to the park immediately but he could not find his violin. Marco was sad because his violin was a birthday gift from his grandma. Suddenly, Marco heard a dog barking. The dog was very smart. It helped Marco find the violin. Marco was very very happy.

By Melody Lam, 4B