

Chinese New Year

Do you like Chinese New Year? I love this festival best because the festive mood is good!

We usually have a big dinner with our relatives on the eve of Chinese New Year.

This big dinner is "Poon Choi".

In the big bowl of food, we can find abalones, mushrooms, chicken, fish balls and so on. They are delicious!

On the first day of Chinese New Year, my home is decorated with a variety of the New Year flowers, and we go to visit the homes of our relatives and we say greetings to each other and the elders give red packets to me.

I like the food at Chinese New Year and I like the sweet rice balls best because they are very yummy!
