

A Basketball Game

By Lin Siu Wa

It was a sunny day. Joe, Alex, Steven and Bosco went to a basketball court. They were playing basketball happily. Some people joined them to play a match.

During the match, Steven passes the ball to Alex. He could not catch the ball so it flew out of the basketball court.

Suddenly, the ball hit the car. They got the ball immediately. 'Oh No!' they screamed. They were very scared.

Finally, the car owner came forward to them. He was very angry. 'Pay for my lost!' the car owner said angrily.

In the end, the boys went home and got money. They said sorry again to the car owner. Fortunately, the car owner forgave them at last.
