

Rapunzel and the Doctor

By 4B Lai Chun Ip

Once upon a time, there was a pretty girl named Rapunzel. She was caught by her stepmother and locked up in a castle. One day, a doctor walked by the castle and heard Rapunzel screamed. So he went into the castle and wanted to rescue Rapunzel.

Rapunzel saw the doctor and asked about his habits.

'Thank you for coming but you are smelly and your uniform looks so dirty. How often do you change your uniform?'

'Twice a week,' said the doctor.

'You ought to change your uniform once a day,' said Rapunzel.

'Ok, I will try my best!' said the doctor.

He then went back home to change his uniform.

Next week, the doctor went back to the castle with a tidy uniform.

'You look so good today! But why do you still have bad smell? Let me check,' said Rapunzel.

'Oh! The smell comes from your feet!

How often do you wash your sports shoes?

'Once a month. Sorry to make you feel bad,' replied the doctor.

'It's OK. You ought to wash your sports shoes once a week,' said Rapunzel.

The doctor took her advice and went home to wash his sports shoes.

Next week, the doctor went back to the castle with a tidy uniform, a pair of clean sports shoes and a confident smile.

'I have changed everything and made myself look handsome. Let's find a way out now!' said the doctor.

Finally, the doctor used a knife to cut Rapunzel's hair and made a rope. They used the rope to climb down and escaped from the castle.
