

At the Clinic

One day, Tom had a stomachache so he went to the clinic.

The nurse asked Tom, "What's the matter?" Tom said, "I had a stomachache because I ate too much ice-cream." He felt dizzy.

The doctor told Tom to drink more water and sleep more.

When Tom and his Dad went home, they saw two men. The two men were carrying a big box. Tom's Dad said, "Oh my god! It hurts!"

At the end, Tom's Dad went to the clinic again.
