

A Magical Dream

They did not know what to do. Then the genie had an idea. 'Oh! I know a wizard who knows how to break the spell. We need to find him,' he suggested. Eric and the genie set off to find the wizard. First, they needed to swim across the river. Then they climbed the high and deep mountain. It was very difficult. After that, they were at the top of the mountain. They were very tired.

After a while, they found a small house and a wizard was there. The wizard was making some soup. It looked delicious. Eric knocked on the door and asked the wizard for help sincerely. The wizard was an old man who was very kind and clever. The wizard was kind like a lamb so he said OK to Eric and the genie. The wizard made a bowl of soup which looked good and tasted like pumpkin soup. Eric drank it. Suddenly he turned back to normal. Eric was very happy and he said 'thank you' to the wizard. The wizard said, 'I'm very happy I was able to help you.' Finally, Eric and the genie said goodbye to the wizard and they left the high mountain.

In the end, Eric went home happily. The genie disappeared. When Eric was thinking about what had happened, he heard a sound. 'Wake up! Wake up! Eric! You should go to school now!' Eric's mother shouted. Eric was very surprised. He told this story to others. However, they didn't believe Eric but Eric thought the story wasn't a dream. It was real.
