

Eric and the Genie

They did not know what to do. Then the genie had an idea, 'Let's find the wizard. Maybe he can help you,' he suggested.

Very soon, they went to find the wizard. They crossed the river and climbed a mountain. They felt so tired.

After that, they entered the wizard's house. It was small. Suddenly, the wizard appeared. 'Why do you come here?' asked the wizard. 'Because I became too tall. I want you to help me to become normal again,' replied Eric. 'O.K!' The wizard answered and gave Eric a magic portion and said the magic spell 'Abracadabra!' Then he passed the magic potion to Eric.

Suddenly, a flash of light flashed. Eric felt so bad because he felt painful! After a while, Eric became shorter. It really worked!

In the end, Eric and the genie became best friends. The genie never disappeared and lived with Eric happily forever.
