

A Basketball Game

It was a sunny day. In the afternoon, Kelvin, Reese, Jason and Nick were in the basketball court and played basketball. Kelvin, Reese and Jason were in a team while Nick was on his own. Kelvin, Reese and Jason felt excited because Nick was very good at playing basketball.

Then, Kelvin wanted to throw the ball to Reese. However, Reese couldn't catch the ball. Therefore, the ball was thrown out of the fence.

They shouted, 'Oh my ...' It was going to hit a car. They felt frightened.

Just then, the ball hit the glass of a car. The passengers in the car were scared. The boys went to the car park immediately. They apologized, 'Sorry.' They felt sad because they hit the car accidentally.

The driver felt upset. He said, 'You need to compensate my loss!'

The boys tried to raise money for the compensation, but they didn't succeed. They went back to find the car owner and said, 'Sorry. We don't have enough money for that.'

In the end, the insurance could cover the loss. So, the car owner did not ask for money from the boys.

