

My Birthday Party

Weather: Sunny

Date: 8th November, 2018

I held a birthday party at home last Sunday. My best friends came to my great party. They bought some very yummy soda lime juice. It was very delicious! My parents cooked a plate of spicy seafood curry. It had fish, prawns, salmon, tuna, crab sticks, etc. We ate some pizza too. Bacon pizza was my favourite so I ate a lot.

Then, my best friend Andy gave me a lot of 'Kinder Surprise'. My parents and I thought that it was the most interesting and delicious snack. Mum gave me a large stationery set. I was surprised so I shouted, 'Oh! It is as big as a house!' I got some comics and bookmarks from my classmates, Helen and Andy.

After that I made a wish. We also watched different eTV programmes. They were educative.

In the end, I felt good and burst with joy!
