In a Theme Park

Yesterday I went to Funny Theme Park with my family. It was big and beautiful. It was crowded. We lined up for a long time to get into the park.

Next I saw "a pig", a cartoon character. It was fat and tall. I wanted to take a photo with this cartoon character so I rushed to it. I was very happy. Suddenly the "pig" fell down. Then his balloons flew away. I felt scared and sorry.

I apologized to the "pig" and he forgave me. I think I should be more careful next time.
