

I visited the Sunshine Old People's Home yesterday. Some of the elderly played Chinese chess when Ben played with Grandpa Chan and some old people.

The elderly people were sitting on the chairs when we gave gifts to the elderly people. I felt happy. Carly said, "Oh! There are not enough gifts."

Suddenly, I found out a creative idea. Ben said, "We can draw pictures to the old people." Carly said, "Good idea! Let's draw."

At last, we drew pictures to give to the old people. I felt surprised. It was a wonderful day for me.
