

Family Outing

Last weekend, the weather was sunny in the morning. Betty and her family went on a picnic. They bought some food in the supermarket. They felt very excited.

In the afternoon, they arrived at Tuen Mun Park. First they had a barbecue. "Yummy!" Betty said. Then they flew a kite and took photos. "Oh no! It rained suddenly," shouted Betty. They felt sad.

Finally, they went home and played games. They were happy again.
