5B Huo Qing Ya Cherry

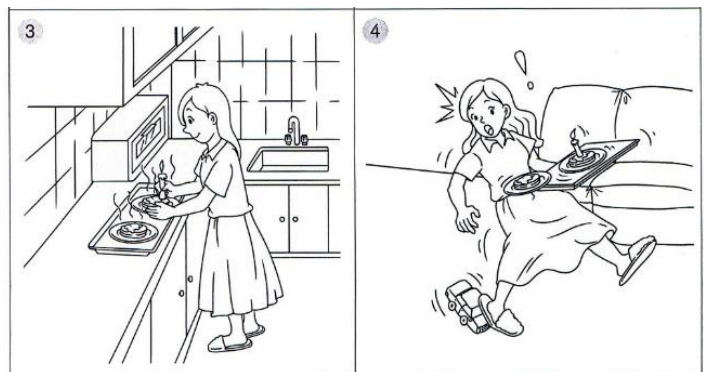

Today is Daisy's birthday. Her sister, Linda, found a recipe for making pancakes. She wanted to make pancakes for Daisy because Daisy wanted to use the pancakes as the birthday cake.

First, Linda put the flour, eggs, butter and sugar into a mixing bowl. Then she beat them with a spoon for five minutes. Next, she heated some oil in the pan. Finally, she added ten spoonfuls of the pancake mixture to the hot oil and fried for five minutes.

The pancakes smelt delicious. Linda took out the pancakes from the oven. Next, she put the pancakes on the tray.

After that, she tripped when she stepped on a toy car in the living room. She dropped the pancakes on the floor. She was very upset.

Linda needed to make the pancakes all over again.

When Daisy knew that Linda was making pancakes for her, Daisy hugged Linda and said, 'Thank you.'

Finally, they made and then ate the new pancakes together.
