

My Mother

My mother is tall and fat. Her eyes are as big as grapes. Her face is like a watermelon. And her mouth is as small as a cherry.

My mother is a salesperson. She is as gentle as a lamb. She is as hard-working as a bee. And she is funny like a storybook. And her hobbies are listening music and singing songs. And her favourite colour is black.

I like my mother because she is too nice to me and she will help me but she is too fierce sometimes. I hope we can go to Disneyland together.
